

Keysight Standard Three-Year Warranty

Get greater reliability – Keysight’s new three-year worldwide warranty on all instruments

Businesses need every advantage to meet the challenges of today’s fast-moving competitive environment

- Cost pressures
- Doing more with less
- Uptime/availability
- Speed to market
- Yield on the production line

Keysight’s commitment to delivering reliable, long-lasting products is demonstrated by our ongoing pursuit of improved quality. Since 2002, our test and measurement instrument failure rates have improved by over fifty percent. And the best news: We’re passing the quality and savings on to you.

Keysight’s combination of reliability and coverage delivers three key benefits:

- Increased confidence
- Reduced cost of ownership
- Greater convenience

The Keysight Technologies, Inc. standard warranty continues to provide the following:

- All parts and labor necessary to return an instrument to full specified performance
- Factory-trained engineers perform all work using genuine Keysight parts
- Automated diagnostic tools ensure fast fault detection and resolution
- Repairs include relevant service notes and firmware updates
- Post-repair process includes performance testing, adjustments and calibration <sup>1</sup>
