

Cable Statements:

A double shielded and properly terminated external interface cable must be used with this equipment when interfacing with the COMM Connector.

For continued EMC compliance, all external cables must be 3 meters or less in length.